

The Emperor's New Clothes

Part 1

Once there was an emperor who loved to wear beautiful clothes.

The crooks dressed as tailors and went to see the emperor.

Your Majesty, we can make you clothes with the finest silk. Our silk is so fine that silly people cannot see it.

The emperor was amazed. He gave the crooks two bags of gold for his new clothes.

The two crooks then pretended to weave the new clothes in the sewing room of the palace.

After a few days, the emperor went to see them. The emperor was surprised at what he saw.

To be continued...