

The Money Bag

Part 1

Once there was a poor couple. They lived in a little hut near the forest.

We'll sell this bundle of wood at the market tomorrow.

The husband left the bundle outside the hut.

The next day, the bundle was gone.

I'll catch the thief tonight.

The husband was angry. That night, he hid in a bundle of wood.

The husband had fallen asleep and did not notice when the bundle rose up into the sky.

When the husband woke up and found that he was in the sky, he was terrified.

Don't be afraid. Take this money bag.

A giant told him that he wanted to help because the poor man was honest and hard-working. The giant told him to take no more than one gold coin from the money bag each day.
